BREED THEATER.

Exceptionally Fine Western Picture,

Full of Expert Horsemanship. All lovers of truly genuine western pictures will find in the programme at the Breed today much to enjoy and conder at, for the picture entitled Alkall Ike Bests Broncho Billy is a Atkall Ike Bests Broncho Billy is a superb presentation of life on the plains and contains a story that is filled with screamingly funny situations and some of the most wonderful horsemanship of the season. The ride to secure the hand of the girl favorite of the village is one of the beat ever seen and shows Mr. Anderson in a series of bewildering manoeuvres and the first particle of the stream of the str whi is afterwards taken away from him by Akyali ike in a manner and reason quite novel. for a reason quite novel.

The Blograph story entitled The Cirl and Her Trust is a railroad picture of the most pronounced type and is tremendously thrilling, telling of the little girl telegraph operator who pluckily holds on to two daring burglars who are escaping with the chest of money are escaping with the clost of money from her express department, being carried miles and miles on a hand car as a prisoner, until she is finally captured from them by a pursuing locomotive. This is one of the most daring and arciting plotures ever seen and brings the house to a whiriwind of excitement at its sensitional climax.

Splendil travel pictures accompany tals programme as well as very fine this programme, as well as very fine dramatic numbers.

POLI'S BROADWAY THEATER. The Real Caruso, Tetrazzini and Other Metropolitan Artists.

Patrons of Poll's have a special trea in store for Monday evening high class music which is very turely heard but much reliated will be one of the attractions on Monday evening. The busiling management of this popular house has arranged to produce through the medium of the Victor Victrola the thest music possible. In no other wa would it be possible to bring togethe such a list of fine artists at one time to: even at the Metropolitan oper-louse in New York city. Usually on would be pleased to hear one or two o the world's vocal telebrities, but o this occasion at least ten or twelve of the world's greatest singers will be the world's greatest singors will be heard in some of the most popular classic selections. Just think, Caruso, Tetrazzini, Parrar, Scotti, Michailowa, Amato and a score of others of the orld's greatest talent, think how few have ever had the opportunity to hear All of the above without any advance

POLI'S BROADWAY THEATER.

Tae Tilanic film drew packed houses esteriay at both matines and evening erformances and met with the ap-noval of all who saw it. This film will be shown again today, matthee and evening for the last time in this city. Also four other new films, and Tom Casey, tenor.

AT THE AUDITORIUM.

Today is the just chance to see the one bill which has been appearing at this theater for the last three days of this week, because Monday there will be a complete change of both vaude-tile and pictures. The Three Sherry Girls, a trio of very pretty young la-tiles, will introduce a short musical comedy skit which will include singing, novelty will be presented on Monday's bill by The Great Monahan, popularly known as the American skating wisard Mr. Monahan has introduced this act in the principal cities of Europe and the Eritish Isles with great sucand the British Isles with great success. Mr. Monahan's costumes are all of special design and some of the original atunts he performs are the dancing doll, electric dance, barrel skating, taxl skates, etc. Tou're Next is a comedy acrobatic novelty introduced by Newport and Stirk, a team of very clever comedium. Blazing the Trail, a 101 Bison two real feature, will be shown on Monday and Thesday of next work, and it is considered the best release by this company cince they started to produce these specials. More will be said of this feature in Monday's paper.

LYCEUM THEATER, NEW LONDON. Tuesday, May 7.

Instantaneous was the verdict of approval rendered by theatergoers on The Lattlest Rebei, Edward Peple's stirring war drama which had a three months run at the Boston theater, four months in Chicago and three months in New York. Not only have the military man of those cities who have attended pronounced it a perfect presentation of the stirring scenes in and about Richmond in the days toward the close of the war, but he care and about Richmond in the days toward the close of the war, but the general public has responded spontaneously to the lessons taught by the play, which in no way recalls any of the point of the lessons taught by the play. by to the lessons taught by the play, which to no way recalls any of the spirit of bitterness which prevailed at that time. The maniy and consistent work of the Farnum Brothers rings.

Tailor-made true, and their efforiz are ably sup-plamented by the remarkable perform-ance of little Mary Miles Minter, who with her doll, Sosan Jemina, is The Littlest Rebel with all the dignity of a soman and the unfathomable wisdom of a child.

THRILLS A PLENTY.

The splendid interpretations of early western life in Buffalo BBPs and Pawnee Bul's exhibitions coming to Nor-wich on Miy 14 have been profusely broadened for this year's tour. In the "season's best thriller," "Pio-nser Eventa in Frontier Days," many new subjects are illuminated, framed with scenic backgrounds, illustrated in more taugible manner than ever, in-dients that go to make this season's howing the most prolific and healthful appy hunting grounds of thrills a JAMES H. HYDE

The necessity for thrills has been ognized since time began. In a risks men have performed feats with they could never approach at other time, tremendous emotion ten unlocking power beyond belief. The expositions of Burralo Bill's Wild

Yest and Pawnee Bill's Far East to presented in Norwich Tuesday, May are the most diverging ever devised coupling invigorating recreation with beneficent historical representa-tion, gratifying the appetite of all kinds of men and women and childres, too for the stirring quickening and thrilling. The most blase human capitulates before its hundreds of starting attractions, as wide in scope as the poles apart.

DOWN TO THE SEAS AGAIN.

I must go down to the sea again, to the lonely sea and the sky.

And all I ask is a tall ship and a star to steer her by.

And the wheel's kick and the wind's song and the white sall's shaking and a gray mist on the sea's face, and a gray dawn breaking.

I must go down to the seas again, for the call of the running tide Is a wild call and a clear call that may not be denied; And all I ask is a windy day with the white clouds flying. And the flung spray and the blown spume and the seaguils crying.

I must go down to the seas again, to To the guil's way and the whale's way where the wind's like a whetted knife;
And all I ask is a merry yarn from a laughting fellow rover.

And quiet sleep and a sweet dream when the long trick's over.

—John Mansfield.

No American raw cotton was im-ported into China during the 1910-11 season, but between 40,000 and 50,000 bales were contracted for in October, 1911, for 1911-12. This demand for American cotton is unusual, due prin-cipally to the holding back of the Chinese cotton crop by the farmers, in the hope of higher prices, and also to the low price of American cotton, which enabled the mill owners to as-sert their independence of the farmers
